

The diagram shows a rectangular print layout. It features three concentric borders: an outermost dashed pink line representing the bleed area, a middle solid blue line representing the trim line, and an innermost solid black line representing the safe zone. The text '4.25" x 5.5"' is centered in the middle of the page. Below it, the dimensions for cut size and bleed are provided. On the left side, three horizontal arrows point from text labels to the corresponding lines on the left edge of the diagram.
